

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: The Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) has been an invaluable and highly respected partner in our community for 122 years, consistently demonstrating dedication, professionalism, and unwavering commitment to public safety; and
- WHEREAS: The RCMP's long-standing tradition of excellence and service to our nation has played an instrumental role in safeguarding our community and upholding the principles of justice, integrity, and equality; and
- WHEREAS: The RCMP's 150th anniversary represents a significant milestone in their remarkable history, celebrating their enduring legacy and the countless contributions they have made to our nation's security and well-being; and
- WHEREAS: National Police Week provides an opportunity for us to express our profound gratitude and appreciation for the selfless service, sacrifice, and bravery demonstrated by the men and women of the RCMP, who tirelessly work to ensure the safety and welfare of our community; and
- WHEREAS: The partnership between our community and the RCMP is built on trust, collaboration, and mutual respect, fostering a strong bond that enhances public safety, promotes crime prevention, and supports the well-being of our residents;
- WHEREAS: Each year, communities across Canada celebrate National Police Week, with this year's theme being: Committed to Serve.

NOW THEREFORE,

I, Ken Johnston, Mayor of the City of Red Deer, hereby proclaim May 21-27, 2023, as RCMP Week and National Police Week in our community. I urge all residents to join me in recognizing and honoring the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for their 150 years of exceptional service and their ongoing commitment to maintaining law and order, protecting our community, and preserving the peace.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the Official Seal of The City of Red Deer, Alberta, to be affixed.

Mayor Ken Johnston
City of Red Deer

