

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: The Society of Alberta Occupational Therapists, national, provincial and territorial occupational therapy associations annually designate the month of October as Occupational Therapy Month, and
- WHEREAS: Occupational therapy is a regulated health profession dedicated to the health and wellbeing of Albertans of all ages and abilities, and
- WHEREAS: Occupational therapy services support clients to overcome obstacles that prevent involvement in activities that have a positive impact on their lives, and
- WHEREAS: Albertans depend on access to occupational therapy services through home services, community agencies, hospitals, long-term care facilities, rehabilitation clinics, schools, mental health centers, industry and government agencies and private practices, and
- WHEREAS: We celebrate the profession and the positive impact that occupational therapists play in the lives of Albertans of all ages.

NOW THEREFORE,

I, Ken Johnston, Mayor of the City of Red Deer, hereby proclaim that October 2023 shall be known as “Occupational Therapy Month” in the City of Red Deer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the Official Seal of The City of Red Deer, Alberta, to be affixed.

Mayor Ken Johnston
City of Red Deer
