

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

ALBERTA DISABILITY SERVICE PROFESSIONALS APPRECIATION WEEK PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS The third week of May is recognized as Alberta Disability Service Professionals Appreciation Week, honouring the vital work of professionals who provide quality support to individuals with developmental disabilities, enabling them to lead fulfilling, independent, and inclusive lives within our communities; and
- WHEREAS These professionals play an essential role in fostering inclusion, advocating for rights, delivering compassionate support, and empowering individuals with disabilities to achieve their full potential; and
- WHEREAS The dedication of disability service professionals enhances the quality of life for individuals with disabilities, their families, and the wider community, helping to build a more compassionate and equitable society; and
- WHEREAS Caring for society's most vulnerable individuals is a fundamental responsibility within health and social services, requiring commitment, skill, and empathy to maximize quality of life in the face of illness and disability; and
- WHEREAS The disability services sector is made up of a diverse group of hardworking, passionate, and essential professionals who deserve recognition for the unique and often challenging nature of their work;

NOW THEREFORE

I, Cindy Jefferies, Mayor of The City of Red Deer, do hereby encourage all residents of Red Deer to take this opportunity to recognize and celebrate Disability Service Professionals for their meaningful contributions to our community throughout the year, and especially during this commemorative week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the Official Seal of The City of Red Deer to be affixed.

Mayor Cindy Jefferies
City of Red Deer

