

Election Officer Employment Application

Do you want to serve your community, earn money and support the democratic process? Become an election worker! The City of Red Deer is currently accepting applications for election officers for the 2021 municipal and school trustee elections.

Various positions need to be filled for Election Day and for several Advance Vote and Institutional Vote dates. Election Day workers are required to be available between September 28 to October 18 and can earn between $200 and $400 working a full day.

Check out <https://elections.reddeer.ca> if you are interested in this opportunity, want to learn more about job requirements and how to apply.

Applications will be accepted until 11:59 pm on Tuesday, September 14, 2021.

Development Officer Approvals

There are no Development Officer approvals for September 2, 2021.

Watch for Development Officer approvals on Tuesdays and Fridays.
